SECTION: COMMUNITY

TITLE: CITIZEN ADVISORY COMMITTEES

ADOPTED: February 20, 2001

REVISED: August 16, 2011

	905. CITIZEN ADVISORY COMMITTEES
1.Purpose	Citizen advisory committees are useful in keeping the Board and administration informed with regard to community opinion and in representing the community in the study of specific school and educational issues.
2.Authority	In creating an advisory committee, the Board may request that the Superintendent define the committee assignments and identify residents who are interested and who can make some special contribution to the committee's deliberations. Creation of citizen advisory committees shall not compromise or diminish the responsibility of the Board, which shall be free to accept or reject any or all advisory committee recommendations. Meetings of advisory committees are not to be considered as regular meetings of the Board, and shall not be governed by provisions of the Sunshine Law.
